PRESIDENT'S CORNER

WE ALL HAVE THINGS WE TREASURE – PRECIOUS FAMILY HEIRLOOMS, COLLECTIBLES, SOUVENIRS OF TRAVEL.

WE FIND SPACE FOR THEM IN OUR HOMES AND WE DUST THEM. AND, THEN THERE ARE THE THINGS WE WOULDN'T WANT TO LIVE WITHOUT. FOR ME, ART IS ONE OF THOSE THINGS. I FEEL BLESSED TO LIVE IN A COMMUNITY THAT CARES ABOUT AND SUPPORTS THE ARTS.

IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS AN ARTS CENTER REPRESENTATIVE MAY APPROACH YOU TO ASK A DONATION FOR OUR FALL FUNDRAISING AUCTION, THE GAGA GALA. BEFORE THEN, PLEASE TAKE A LOOK AROUND YOUR HOME, CHECK OUT YOUR STORE ROOM, POKE YOUR HEAD IN YOUR ATTIC AND FIND THAT TREASURE THAT YOU KNOW YOU COULD LIVE WITHOUT. WE ARE LOOKING FOR ART AND ANTIQUES THAT OTHERS WILL WANT TO HAVE. A COMMITTEE TO INCLUDE EXPERT ADVICE FROM AN AUTHORITY IN THE FIELD WILL DECIDE IF A DONATED ITEM CAN BE EXPECTED TO SELL.

YOU'LL HEAR MORE ABOUT THE GAGA GALA IN THE NEAR FUTURE. THE ARTS CENTER IS CURRENTLY BUSY WITH SUMMER CLASSES AND CAMPS. OUR NEXT EXHIBIT EQUUS III: THE MODERN HORSE OPENS ON JULY 14TH WITH A RECEPTION AND MAIN STREET ART WALK FROM 5:00 TO 7:00PM. WE ARE VERY EXCITED ABOUT THIS NEW SHOW.

I LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AT THE ARTS CENTER IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

ED HARVEY

VIRGINIA ARTISTS, MUSICIANS & AUTHORS IN THE GALLERY SHOP AT THE ARTS CENTER IN ORANGE

With Funding for the Arts in the Outhouse . . .

The Arts Center In Orange dons its rose colored glasses to celebrate the outhouse with ART! What began as a joke, has turned into an artful opportunity for community partnership. A member of another local nonprofit organization made the tongue-in-cheek suggestion that

The Arts Center follow the example of a Texas hill country arts center, and commission artists to paint outhouses as a fundraiser. Ha, Ha, very funny. Well, maybe not so funny. Those talented and generous young carpenters at Orange County High's Future Farmers of America got wind of the idea and built and donated the outhouses to The Arts Center! The 4'x4'x8' structures are built of recycled lumber from the bleachers in the school's original gym and will be outfitted as garden sheds. In the coming months, The Arts Center will be offering local businesses the chance to sponsor an outhouse, and challenging local artists to a contest for commissions to paint them. Ultimately, the outhouses will be auctioned to raise funds for Arts Center programs. In the meantime, if your business is interested in sponsorship, or you are an artist interested in painting outside the box (thunder box that is), please contact Laura at (540) 672-7311.

Our respect and gratitude to the OCHS FFA, including Coty Goodwin outgoing FFA president, incoming president Mark Bowman and senior Herbert Ennis who even stayed on after graduation to work on the project, for their generosity, creativity and community spirit!

A New Home for Old Friends

In June of 2010 The Arts Center In Orange had the opportunity to participate in an international arts initiative by exhibiting Inuit tapestries from the collection of Judith Varney Burch in its Morin Gallery, as well as sharing her experience and knowledge of the Inuit culture with gallery patrons, and area school children through Community Outreach.

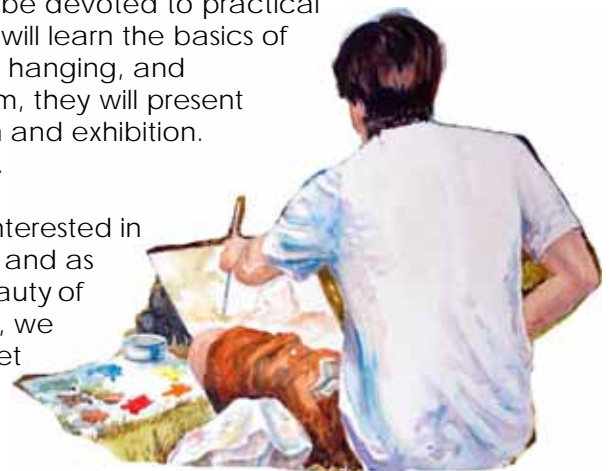

Judith Varney Burch who serves as a research collaborator for the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History and curates exhibitions and lectures around the world has recently opened Arctic Inuit Art, an art gallery and learning space for the community to explore the Arctic. The gallery is located in Charlottesville at 22 Elliewood Ave. and is open to the public by appointment. To learn more: www.arcticinuitart.com or contact Mrs. Burch at: judithvarneyburch@gmail.com for an appointment to visit the gallery.

OC Students Paint the Town!

Wednesday – Friday, July 13 - 15, twenty area middle and high school-aged students selected by their art teachers will have the opportunity to attend a FREE 3-day plein aire watercolor workshop with award winning artist and teacher Chee Kludt Ricketts hosted by The Arts Center In Orange and funded through a grant from The Virginia Watercolor Society.

Students will spend Wednesday morning in the classroom receiving an introduction to the Art of Watercolor and a brief refresher on the principles of perspective and composition. After lunch, the class will move outdoors to explore the Town of Orange, select their subjects and begin preliminary sketches for their paintings. Weather willing, Thursday will be spent outdoors painting. Friday will be devoted to practical matters — students will learn the basics of mat cutting, gallery hanging, and lighting. From 1-2pm, they will present an artists' reception and exhibition. The public is invited.

If you are an artist interested in pleine aire painting and as charmed by the beauty of our town as we are, we encourage you to set up your easel and Paint the Town on Thursday, July 14!

Think of your Arts Center as Heavy Equipment

Art is more than a means of creative self-expression.
Like a piece of heavy equipment,
Art is a very powerful tool in building a community.

The Arts Center In Orange houses art, teaches art, and cherishes art and the people who create it. We also do our best to exploit it and harness its power to serve our community.

For over a decade we have used the arts and our wonderful building to:

- Fertilize our community's cultural landscape,
- Generate and Pave the way for tourist traffic,
- Build a Home for local clubs and organizations,
- Cultivate the talents of our youth,
- Elevate our community pride,
- Reinforce the missions other organizations serving Orange,
- Lay Foundations for cooperation, and
- Mine our community's collective resources.
